REGIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

■ ECOSUMMIT 2012

In fall 2012, the focus of the world's ecological community will be on Columbus as the host city for EcoSummit 2012. Columbus will be the first U.S. venue for EcoSummit, after previous runs in Copenhagen, Halifax, and Beijing. Over 1,900 abstracts from 100 countries have been submitted for presentation at EcoSummit, assuring that this conference will be among the most significant international sustainability conferences of the decade.

■ GLOBAL BRAINPOWER!

Coupled with the great universities in the region, three world-class research and information organizations drive discovery and innovation around the world. Battelle, OCLC, and Chemical Abstracts Service (CAS) together operate 40 offices in more than 50 countries around the world.

A Message from the Columbus Council on World Affairs

The Global Report is a transformational endeavor. As a local community, we must understand our significant international dimensions so that we may adapt to them and ultimately leverage them. Thriving in a global society requires informed and engaged citizens capable of navigating our world economy with fluency.

A report of this magnitude demands world-class partners. Thank you to our investors: Columbus2020, whose vision for this project ensured its success; The Columbus Foundation, for recognizing the importance of an internationally rich community; and MORPC, a leader in bringing together people, organizations, and information to cultivate a vibrant region. The Global Report also would not have been possible without the research acumen of its author, Community Research Partners. On behalf of the Columbus Council on World Affairs' Board, staff, and members, thank you for embracing our global future.

Patrick Terrien
President and CEO
Columbus Council on World Affairs

“Columbus2020’s investment in The Global Report is an investment in our region’s economic development. As we better understand the extent of our global assets, we can better position the region to be even more competitive.”

Kenny McDonald
Chief Economic Officer
Columbus2020!
